Ultimate Déjà Vu
It is the ultimate peace
Spending time with God
No need to wait till you die
Its time you can be spending
Right now
In your life
It is feeling good again
No matter the situation
You are in
You can begin again
To have peace
To know peace
We are peace
We the peace
We the people
Of Peace
Of life
In Life
We partake of the peace
Radiating peace
Raining down on this life
From eternity
We are today eternity
In the moments of this life
Déjà Vu
Ultimate Déjà Vu
Blessed by the moments of life
That we know this peace
That we are at peace
In our heart's
In our mind's
In our love
We are the peace
Of this love
At peace with life

In peace we live
This peace of God

Zen Build Déjà Vu

Zen Déjà Vu
Inside Déjà Vu
A part of Déjà Vu

I live to know you

Finding life again
This time belongs to me

A man of substance
You could be anything
The best of everything

I live to know you

Get a grip
We have control
Over who we are Feeling good is so good
Getting it right

To Ride The Dream

Controlling the thing
That drives the dream
This dream we live
The dream of life

We have to live in the moment
It is what we have
Not live in the future
Not live in the past

It our mind
We ride the dream
In this moment we live
On this joy we ride

Controlling the moment
That drives the dream
This gives us peace
This dream of life

We ride this dream
In peace
With Love
This dream we live
Our Life

To Be

Finding a way to be free
In life
In thought
In emotion
Body
Spirit
&
Soul

Finding a way to be free
Free again
Free today
Free from Yesterday
Tomorrow
&
Me

Free from me
Free for you
Finding the good in life
Seeing the good in each day
Winning the mentality
Of each moment
Seeing the good
Us

Blessed by the moments
We live
Alive in the moments
We take
Made by the moments
We find
Finding a way to stay
Free
To Live

To Be
It is all about feeling good
Free

The Way to Déjà Vu

The Way to Déjà Vu

In your mind
Is how a life is seen
What thoughts are allowed
What thoughts are trained to Be
You by You
The way to Déjà Vu
The you that can be you
It is you that decides
Good thoughts in your mind
It is you who sorts out
The things that remain
A part
Of you
You Déjà Vu
It is who you let be you
Déjà Vu of you
Clarity of mind
Purpose with Peace
Life
Love

Holy 神圣

It is about getting better
Making others feel good Pain makes us holy Pain makes us sane
Pain makes us learn
It takes us through the levels
Of life
Past the problems
Death took me
To places
Far past
Me
To a new level of living
Understanding
Enlightenment
Overcoming the pain
Anointed me
With a measure of God
Opened my eyes
Giving me wisdom
Over my life
Over my mind
Pain is of men
Overcoming pain
Is peace
From God
Peace will make you holy
It is love
That makes you whole
Only the love of God
Can make you strong Unique
This love
That we belong

Kindness
It was not a weakness
He took it with confidence
In stride as a man

Able to handle
Each situation
Life has to offer
With wisdom

Each Relationship
With Understanding
With Love

No one can love you more
Then the one that gives you
The most lose of love

No one can you love more
Then to love them
Past the point of grief

To the point of joy
From Joy
That they can not

Hide
Within Them
Self

No one can Avoid Joy
With Confusion

One
Can Run from Truth

It is not Weakness
To love

Is Virtue

Of
Our

Order

More important than anything
To be well in your mind
To enjoy everything about being you
Winning the battles
Waged against the sanity
The peace
Of your mind
Above all
The thoughts
That live through your mind
Inside
Of you
What makes A life
A
Joy

Purging your mind of Any negative thought
Purging your life of any Negative thing

Maharishi Déjà Vu

Déjà Vu

Tonic

Situations are not the problem that causes your pain
It is how you let yourself think about them

The habit you create
In your mind
Determines whether a memory
Is a blessing or an agony

You need to understand
You got to believe
It is you
That decides

You have a choice
To believe in the good
Or to suffer
Inside
Your mind
In your life

Every woman
Every man
Has the power
To fight back
Against the thoughts
That make us feel bad

To Resist
To substitute
To reprogram
The flow
Of the

I Found

My Peace

You
Can fix it all
For you
Right now

Find
Hang on to
Those good memories

Forget about
The bad

Elixir

Got to be strong to have peace
Strong enough to hold on to it
Or have it ripped out of your hand
Drained out of your mind
Your life
Got to be sure to be at peace
It is better if you hang on to peace
Then living through life without it
I believe I would hang on to it
If I were you
I got a hold on it
Not going to let it go
Believe me
It is better to get a grip on peace
I believe
I will Hang on
To Peace

In The Flow Of Mind

Thoughts flow
Come and go
Through the flow
Of your life
Through your mind

You like them because You choose to like them
Choose what you think
Or it will control you

Life is all about the way you think
The most important thoughts are Being well
Having peace in your mind
You must have peace in your mind
Before you can have peace in your life

These things are the basis of
The ability to be able to love
To give and share love
Healthy love that will grow

Love is not an answer
For finding peace
Peace is needed to grow
Real love

Love is not a thing we take
Love is what we have to share
Leaving the negative past issues behind Finding yourself again

You have to fix yourself
Before you can worry about
The answers to all the other things

Be someone

Good Day

How great is the day
That is the opposite of your worst day

You can have that day today
You can have that day any day
Instead of a bad day

Find it inside of you
See it outside of you

It starts with a thought
The thought is a seed
A seed of light

Light that effects
Every part of your day
Spreading through everything

Everything you feel Everything you see Everything you think

Turning everything
Thing
Time
A wonderful day
Live

Enjoy your life
Love your self
Enjoy your day

Ok With Everything

Enjoy Your Life Again
You got a life to live
So live it

Things have a way
Of working themselves out

When you finally let go
You will see your life
In a whole new light

The surging waves of your mind
Start with mediating on
The good inside

Of

Your

Your

Into Me

Love yourself
You have to love you first
Before you can love someone else
There is no reason not to love yourself

It is your thoughts
The way you let yourself feel about things
That makes you feel bad

Don't run from your self Stop fearing yourself
Turn off the pain

Love yourself

Déjà Vu
The Moment

The Moment

The thought
Life is only as Good or Bad
As we choose

To think
To See
To Remember

The Moment

We are the measure
Of How
We perceive
Of where we proceed

Good or bad
How we see
The time
In which we live
In the moment

In its time
We live
Protected from past
Effecting the future
All in the way we choose

Good Thought
Good thinking
A meditation
On defining How we see
Ourselves

The mirror of life
That reveals
Our time
Inside
This Cocoon of life

What a joy to be Free
In
In the soothing breeze
This joy of life

Of
In
Our time

Deciding on Life living on

The moment

Déjà Vu

Proportionate Accountability

Like I said

The only thing that is wrong with you
Is in your mind

Your timing is off
It can be a challenge to meet
Or
Live beneath it

We need to remind each other
To rise above it
In our minds

So our lives don't become Enslaved to negativity
To despair

Follow the good thoughts
Not clinging to and obsessed over
The bad

Sometimes we don't live
To our full potential in the moment
Because
We worry about what the future will hold

Always keep a positive mental attitude
Because
It will make you
Or break you

You cannot make your life good or fix it
By dwelling on the bad

Feeling bad
Sorry for yourself
Is the enemy of peace

Concentrate on the peace
Build your life around good new habits
No more negative thoughts

Disassociate
Resist
Break

Negative associations
In your mind

Feeling bad is not an option

Concentrate on the good

The thought

The moment

The good thought

Déjà Vu
The Moment

Twisted

What is
What should be
What should not be
What will be
Twisted around inside your head

Love

You got it out of focus
Who you are
Who you should be What should
What should not

Love

Twisted in your mind
Twisted throughout
Your thoughts
Your life
Your emotions
Your love

Making your friends your enemies
They should be friends
They can't be friends
What is a friend

Love

A friend
Is a friend
Who Is twisted
Inside of love
With you
In you

Love

What is
What should be

What should not be
What will be

Love

Got it twisted Between
Outcome Desire

Twisted in between Anger
Upset
Despair
Self pity

The desire to fix
it
To untwisted
it

Love

Without going back
To the smooth
Flowing stands
The love
That got twisted
But is love

Twisted together
But Connected Through The

Déjà Vu
The Moment

Love That Is Love

War of Mind
We betray the love we have known
By thinking badly about it

Dignity of Mind
We were better than taking the collateral damage
For things we do not deserve

Peace of Mind
We run from ourselves until we realize
We are running from when we loved

Mind of Mind
We know when we see a love that is love
By remembering how

We loved

This love

Déjà Vu
The Moment

Good Thing

Want to write about
Want to think about
Want to talk about
Some good thing

Seen some good things
In my life

In this life
Good things
Good times
Good friends
Good love

Good things
In my memory
Fixing my mind on them
Not going to let go of them

Life is about
Good things
Sharing them
Living them

Loving when
You have a chance to love

It is always
A good thing

Do Something
Something about
Your life
Something with
Your life

Something in your life
Something good
Something to fill
With Love
A mind without love
Is empty
So fill your mind
With love
Find a place
Find some thing
Find some way
To start to

Love the moment
Love the morning
Until the evening
Love each opportunity
That you can love
In your life
To effect
This life
With Love

Fantasy 幻想

A tender kiss to touch your face
Lips that brush across your cheek
As they whisper of love
Dancing toward your ear
The breath of life
Escapes between these lips
Running over your shoulder
Moist like slow soothing summer rain
Soft kisses wet with love
Caressing your lovely neck Pressing sweet moments of Love and affection
Into the longing for love
A touch of the longing to love
We share these moments of longing
Anticipating the moments of love
That we long to share Close
Together
Wrapped in gentile loving arms
Face to face
Eye to eye
Love flows
Between us
Whispers of love
Whispers on the wind
Whispers flowing with the soft sounds
Of lovers loving
As one

I Am Peace

Within myself I died
All that I loved
All that I wanted
All that I am
All of my dreams

The things of life
That I longed for
That I needed
That I could not live without
All of them became Pain and anxiety to me

Every day I fought to let them go
Every day they diminished me
My life became smaller Less to do
Less to go
Focused on obsession
Running from anxiety

All that I am had to die
Inside of me
Letting it go felt like helplessness
But in death I found peace
Better to die to self
Then to live in torment

All of the power that was breaking me
Became the power to live in peace
Giving me power to get up and move
To surrender my anger and selfishness

Fear blame and guilt
That was poisoning me

Freeing me from
What was What was not What would
&
Would not be

To grow
To live
To love
To see
To forgive

To let go of me
Now I am free

Now

I am peace

Change Your Mind

Away from the past
To a new day

A new dawn
We follow new thoughts
That lead us away

Into a moment to moment
Day to day

Meditation Devotion

Renewing of our thoughts
Changing our mind

This new mantra of our thinking
On the rebirth of the way

We think
We do
We live
We feel

Our life
As we perceive it
Through the eye
Of our mind

A power to change
The flow of our thoughts
Through meditative
Perusing

Good things
Good thoughts
Good direction

Into the flow
Reality

Reality on which our lives
Are sustained

Nurtured Grown into Who we are

We choose
Our lives
Deep inside
The flow
Of our Minds

Pursuing new life
Changing our minds

Enjoy the time

(The Out Door)

Running from the bull
It will keep you in shape

But you can never

Out run the bull

Until you learn to Walk on water
Or walk without A sound

No one is watching
So make the move
It's the most important Move
Of your life

Move yourself
Out of the way
Bull

Because this bull
Never sleeps
Never rests

Don't bother turning back
To get a look
Just take this moment
To think

Do you really want
To get a good look
At everything you've been running from All your life

Take some good advice
Let the bull run by Then ride

Get on top of What's been owning you
Get a grip
Ride

We Ride

Temple Of The Sun

The formula of who you are Residing inside of it
Abiding by the things that you can do
The mathematics of this formula of errors
Something to look forward to
It feels good to have a life

You got to love what it is to be you
You got to love what you do to be smooth
To get the meaning to the word that is smooth
Like a rock in the water the other rocks knock the edges off of you
It makes you smooth
Until everything will start to Roll with you
That's when you

Get

Smooth

In understanding and action
Applying smooth to all you do
Get with the flow of all that is around you
To be smooth in time is the best you can do
It is not about feeling good
It is about doing good
So that you can feel good about it

Smooth

Dancing under the moon in temple of the Son
Today I played ball with my son
It was then
I could understand
Who I am
It's not a sin to live your life
I danced for God
God danced with me
Under the light of the moon's temple of the sun

So

Deep Emancipated Mind

A quiet mind
Can hear the wind
Shuffle the clouds
Can feel the earth
Spinning
Moving
Like a sail through the sky
Catching the flow
Of an autumn horizon

A peaceful heart
Can feel the Calm
Of the day
Understanding

How to find
The love in each moment of life
At peace in the memory
Of love
Protected from the Storms of life

Really wanting to love someone
Is not a sin
Perhaps the actions of love
Out of consecration
Are not a righteous thing
But love to love
Is never An evil
Thing

We are who we are
At the best
Of who we are
When we

Emancipated
From our mind
Through love
By love
The rhythm
Of this life
Is Love
There is no fear
In Love

Love deep
Deep Love

Tea Egg Moon
Serenity

For Lillian & Paul

Painted white and blue
Oval in the midnight sky
Like a tea egg
Painted through the cracks
Of its shell
By the spices
That seep through
Veins
Swirls
And Bleed throughs
Of Dark
Of Light
Giving you a face
Of art
Of Day
Of Night
Never seen before Consumed
Never seen again

My eyes have seen
The Tea Egg Moon
With its ring of light
Hanging in the night
In between the blink
Of the eye
Of the full moon

With wings I meet the day
We are the wings
Of Day
Of Night
We are the wings of time
In flight
In the light

Reflections
As the moon
Reflects the sun
Reflections of the Day on Night
We Are Reflections
Of the light
In time

Live To Know {Gentile Soul}

I am always out here
Even when you can't see me

Even when you don't hear from me
I am always out here
Following peace

I live to know
This
Peace

Like a light
That beams through a hole
In a roof
Slicing through
The open air into a room
Amid the full light of day

If you focus on its energy
It will lead you to the source
Of light

The power
To reveal light
In light of day

Light to our eyes
Light to our minds

It will cleanse you of those things
That causes darkness in your life

It will reveal the path
To Light
To Peace

Thought through the days
It may not seem
That I have thought
Of you
I am always with you
Living in our hearts

We are together
We share this peace
This light
This
Love

In our minds
We are freed

We live to know

This Peace

Truly The Real

Who I was
Who I am
It's all good
In who
I will be

Blessed
With peace
Blessed in my mind
With love

Not love from without
But love from within Within the essence of every fiber
Of who I am

Got the love
Going on Inside of

Truly the real
Of what we are searching for
A way to seal the love
In who we are

We are the spawn
Of love
In the sea
Of
Life

We swim against the tide
Of
Life

Making our way to the sea
Making our way to the ocean

To be

The spawn
Of
Life

We are the spawn
Of

More Than Turning Back Time
More than anything
I wish you peace

If I could give you anything
Anything in this life
More than wealth
More than your dreams
I would give you peace

Even more then the love I long
To give to you
I wish you peace

More than the life
You long for and I long to give Give to you

If I can not
Then I wish you peace

Peace that keeps your mind at ease
Peace that keeps your heart a rest

Greater then love
That two can share

I wish we could Share
This peace

More than anything
I have ever done
Or could do
Peace

That you would see
And find yourself Always
For

My Friend
In Peace

Turn Key

“The only thing that really matters that went wrong Happened inside of your mind” Maharishi Déjà Vu

I became locked in a prison
Inside of my mind
I don't know how
Was it because I love
I trust
I care

Was it because
It was real to me
But not enough
To be love
To the love
To the one
That shared love
With me

How can someone Know love
Then turn love
Into something Without face

Leaving the memory
Avoiding the memory
Imprisoning
The mind
Of those they know
Love them
Telling themselves
It was not love

I became a prisoner
Locked inside the solitary
Of my mind
Compassion the key
Held in your hand
I have turned it for you
But you will not turn it
For me
It is the same key
That keeps you
From ever
Being free
Get a good look
At what you have turned into
You could have turned to kindness
Instead you're losing your soul
To your self

Mind Motion

There's a windmill of thought
Spinning through my mind
Turning
Churning
To the speed of life around me
It's got its own timing
Going on

But love's got a wind
That will take the spin
Of the windmill in the mind
To a lightning speed
That's hard to control

To dance like the wind
It's the kind of spin
That will dance right through All you are

Mind motion
Starts with the wet
And turns to an ocean
Moving it's mighty
Currents through
All of who you are

It's got a speed all of its own
Own or owned Authority
Over
Who you are

Some people can talk
Yet never say a word
I can hear you
In my head
In my heart
Even when you don't say a word
It is an understand
That we share

I am not ashamed of who I am
It is who I was made

Outside In

Are you worshipping feeling bad
Are you locked on to the negative

Relating to emotional pain
Finding yourself stewing
In despair or hopelessness
Without joy or peace
You're stuck because your focus
Is turned against you
You're seeing life
Inside out
When there is no reason not
That you see the focus Outside in

Let yourself
Out of the prison
Of the mind
For a little while

Peace Revealed

How I love your peace Lord
Anoint me with your peace
Cause it to spread in my heart
In my life
Around me

Let the seed of your peace
In my heart
Be of you
Let it take root
Deep into every Thought and feeling
Everything
I am

Let it spread through me
Blotting out the effects
Of my sins in me
So that I may always Know and remain in
The shelter of Your peace

The peace of eternity
Now in my life

Let me meditate
Always
On your peace
That I might live
In your peace
Every moment
Of every day
All the days

Mind Ease

Refocus your mind
On restful Peaceful Thinking

The kind of calm
That you feel
When you tired
When your mind gives up Analyzing Going over
The situations of living

When you can feel
The comfort of
The place you lay down
Without resistance
Feeling the soothing moments of the Slow sinking of the Soft bedding
Beneath you

Focused only on The peaceful Feelings

With the cares of life
Fleeting away
Make this
The Focus
Of ever moment
Of your life

Nuclear Seed

Focus on the good things
Stop expecting
When you have given
You have done your best
And what you must

Peace will follow
But it comes from within
If it is returned to you
It is the fruit
From the peace
You have sown

The giving
Hang on to

The peace that Grows within you
Is a gift
Of life

A seed of peace
With the effect
Of a nuclear reaction Spreading
Permeating
Everything in its path

With The Love

Something to look forward to
Every day of my life
Looking forward to the day
Looking forward to the seasons unfolding in time Looking forward to each moment that is new

The dignity of having peace
The peace of living free from fear
Of what is ahead
Seeing the good in living
The beauty unfolding in time

This marvelous life
As painted on each moment
Of eternity

Eternity at peace
With my soul
With who I am

Something to look forward to Making peace with the moments
Of this life

The Privilege To Share

Loving someone Gives you peace
When they are gone

You did love them
They were your friend

That in you shared
Turns the memories into
The best of the good
That you both shared

This is the part
That will
Forever
In our hearts
In our mind

It is what we Take into Eternity
That we Did love

In Search Of The Good Thought

Teach me the way
To find the good though
That ignites the mind
That leads to the river
With it rushing waters
That flows through the
The mind
Turning all bad to good

So many wrong thoughts
Cross the mind
Through the mind
They become
Who we are
We are the sum
Of the thoughts
That survive in our mind
What survives in your mind
Becomes who you are

Meditate on the Thoughts
That are
The right thoughts
Night
&
Day

The roots of wrong thinking
Though they may grow deep
In our minds
Are not deeper
Then the effect
Of
&
Right

Effect
Power to effect
Power we become
To effect
Starting within ourselves
Effect the world
Starting with the world
Within ourselves

Pilgrimage Mind

A quiet mind
The becoming Healed of the pain
Of memories
We've become

That you might have peace
Deep inside of your mind

The I don't want to mood
Attacking the critical Issues of the mind

What survives in your mind
Becomes who you are

How good can you feel
Today
Just do what you have to do and Find a way to be happy
In your mind

Let go of what's Got a hold
Of your life
Let your mind
Get set free

Don't stop in the middle
Of what you are doing
And get distracted
Never tire of the good
Of who you are

We are the balance
Of the good
Of who we are

Pilgrimage mind
It is the journey
Into the deep Deep into

Reconstituted Mind

It takes faith
To stop the fear
To stop the indecision
To reprogram your Failed thinking
To renew your mind

You can't get better
In your life

In your mind
Living in fear
You have to live in Faith to get
Free

Its not about what is enough
It is about what it takes What will work

Fear and doubt
Will undermining
Who you are
Everything about you
Disconnecting what is good
In you and
Your life

Fretting and worrying
Only makes us feel worse
You can't fix the way you think
Because you have too many things
In your life that have not been fixed
Working hard on the surface things
But the root things have not changed
That's why you can't keep peace
When you find it
See from the outside

Perfect Peace

There is peace
There is your peace
There is my peace
Peace with its limits
Peace with its Frailties
Interruptions
Peace that sustains us
Until it fails us
Peace with it false
Sense of security

Until we are led from the place
That provides us sanctuary
From the storm of uncertainty
The rain of confusion and pain
There is a peace
Our peace
The peace we believe
We have known
In our lives
Then there is perfect peace
A peace with more power
Then anything you can think
Or understand
Peace that will change
Everything
In life

Reflection Of The Images

Always becoming who we will be Concentrate on who you are
The things you are good at
The things you love to do

Change the relation in your mind
Of how perception is determined
By changing the type of image
That you tag with each Association of your life

How we associate
Each moment of our life
Present Future
Or Past

Gives birth to Reality today

Within
The reflection
Images
That play through
Our mind

Solitary confinement of the mind
It leads to liberation
Of focus

Every man must be taught the same thing
But every man must be taught differently

God
The Mirror
&
The Reflection

From what we were Through who we are
To what we will become

The Spirit is the reflection of God
That we see through the mirror of the Son

The love
Alive
Put into motion
Into the family of man
A mirror of the light
Of love
Reflecting

Always becoming
What we will be Linking
To

Me Will Be

Someone else
When I'm someone else
That is not me

Through time
Which I've become Someone else than Me to me
Evolving from me
Into another me
This new some other me
Me will be
An instant into which I am becoming Eternally
I am
Me will Be

Me will be
More of that Less of this
I am the future
Today

Liberated Child
Of yesterday's Confined on the day

A kiss
Upon the face
Of a better time Defined
Intergraded
Released
Someone else
To me
Be I will
Me will be

The Understanding

I found answers
In the understanding
There are answers
To the reasons
To the questions
In your mind

Though they don't say
It was because
Of what they need
That they stay
Close to the love

But they lose face
Of the love
When they wanted the plan
To the point that it
Made what their love
Turn to pain

No face
No peace
No rest

When you
Have no face
For the love
That you long
To love

I gave the love
I've seen the need
Now I understand

To Enjoy Past The Issues

I drank the cure
That cured
My brain

There was an error
Of importance
That was biologically corrected
Re-stimulated my mind

Gave me the ability
To look past the Issues

To enjoy living
To understand
To see the good

The peace
In life

To maintain
A way of thinking

Above
All matters
All concerns

To light the flame
That burns away
Confusion

Loving my life

The flame
In the pilot in my brain
Came back on

Igniting into light
Into power

Igniting gas of negativity
Propelling me
Forward

Into
The fullness
Of peace

I have a life
It belongs to me
It is a gift

My happiness
Is not dependent on others

They are gifts
To enjoy
For a time

My happiness
Is a gift
From me

In this life
It belongs to me
I long to share it
With you

It is the gift
Of me

This time

Our life

Enjoy

Shout Off The Static

In your mind
In your life
In your emotions
In your soul

Shout that thing down
The thing that is keeping you
From peace
Peace of mind
Every moment
That you live
This life
Your life

Got to hear the real
Want to hear what is real
What will take me
To the real me
If you want to get there
Then you got to shut down
The static
Running through you

You are a conductor
Of the things

Of the energy
Of the reality
That runs through you
That you let run through you
Through your mind
Through your living
Through this life

Shout off the static
And you will find
The pureness
Of goodness
Of peace
Of love

Then you can tune
Into the Sounds
Of life

If you listen
Your will hear
Us speak
To you

Talking
Through these sounds
Of life

We are the sound
Of life

Face of Love Turned it around

All I ever wanted to do in life was to love
To love someone
There is no fear in love

Better to be a fool
Than to be a fool's fool
To love is never sin

Though sometimes the actions of love
May precede sin
Love of love
To love with love
Is always a good thing
It is never sin
For it is love
That sets us free

It is love this love
We give

The love we share
That we give
This love

Tung of iniquity
Take your words of Fault away from me

There is no fear
in love

To take back what was taken away from me
Of who I am
For I did love

No more I live in shame
For I did love

I build a temple
Inside my heart
Upon this love

The strength of
Who I am
Unashamed to live
In love

Though I have lost
All that I am
I put my faith
In love

Out of the ash
Of which I've burned
To rise again
By love

To turn around
Is to face
Your love

I choose the face

Of love

Replacing the things that make us feel bad

It is a practice an art

Slowly roll

As they spread out
Unfolding into the stillness
Absorbed into the peace

Enriching the beauty
Enhancing the serenity
Birthed out of Accepted back into
The nature of things

Suspended in the waters of life
Touched by the flowing Charmed by the calming
To see an the knowing
Into who we are

To a good day
To a good frame of mind

There is way to turn understanding
To the flip side
To the sunny side of life

Deep in the fundamental Thoughts and chemicals
Of a mind

Past the complications
Beyond the obsessions

Bigger World Of Mind

A mind's got it limits
So it would seem
Unless of course
A mind is expanding Perception

Limits of the mind
So it would seem
Are decided Unless in fact
A mind is conceiving

A bigger world
Of Mind

A limit wrapped around you
So it would appear
Able to be Loosened
Matter
Time
&
Space
Relative to who you are

A grip of reality
So it would appear
Would limit the ability
To expand the dream
Of life

Unless of course
A mind can see
Far into the depth
Of reality
Past the limit
Of the moment
Of time

A moment of enlightenment

Empowering a mind to see
Past the limits
Of the mind
On this life

4 dimension depth
Existing all the time
Past the limits of a mind
Able to take you to
A bigger world
Of life
Of mind
To live

Who To Be Me

For my mind
My thoughts
And My life
To really belong to me again
I need to find out
To decide
Who I am

Press on through the Mind Barrier
It won't be as hard to get better as it was to feel bad

Balance
In your mind
Balanced between Life and Soul
Who is to say if it exists in your mind its not real
You have to be strong
In your mind

You give the power
In your mind
Over your mind
To the things you choose to believe
The things you let settle
Into the fabric of your thinking
Day to day

It is you that decides
How they make you feel Bad or good

To choose to let them drive you into a direction
Of living and believing about your self
Is but to surrender
What is established
By you
The Balance of your mind belongs
To you

To smell
To taste
To remember
To believe

To be

Valve

Negative thinking is bad for your health
That is the motivation to get you to stop
If you don't like it than why do you do it
It's not like you don't have any choice
It's a bad habit based on false concepts
That leads to trauma and still does
The more you say no
The sooner you say stop
The less you will suffer
The sooner you will reduce
The flow in your mind
Think of it like a water shot off valve
That turns
That tightens down
To turn off the flow
Only this one is sewage not water
How much do you want seeping out
To stink up your mind
That you got to clean up

The Acceptance

Don't let your head
Get stuck inside
An Avalanche
Of negativity

Don't let it drag
Your mind
Into a free fall
Of traumatic events
In life

Control the switch
That directs
Your mind

Let your mind

Reside inside
A mentality
That is ok
With everything

Every time you
Accept the bad switch
You resentence yourself

What are you afraid of Stop living in fear
Don't accept it

New you
New me

No more squirming
Can you see
The new

The fondness of the Memory of
The good
To keep The pain
To not

Replace the images
As they arise
With the good
In the mind

We stand in the warmth
Of the light
Light of the noon day sun

We take in the coolness
Of the running water
Rolling down a stream

On a warm December day

The images
Turn in the mind
To the good
To the new

We are touched by the gentle
Movement of the wind

I see the new me
See the new you

Déjà Vu Outside The Moment

At the edge of night on the shortest day
More like summer the winters first day
Did pass my path to the gardens edge
Black Rabbit did stray
Seemingly unafraid
Made its way to the gardens edge

To eat
To gleam
As it would seem
On morsels
On pieces
Of summer dreams
Of that
Of which
Was left behind
Of a time of plenty
Discarded to the memory of time

Do you come to eat I asked
To eat the present of the past
To get you to another day in time
Where the moment after the moment
Becomes the moment once more

Find something else to think about
You will be ok
The moment after the moment is
A place men create inside the mind

© Sicilian Family Productions

Is the answer Black Rabbit gave

In that moment
Night and day did meet
In a time and place
Inside
&
Outside
Of me

Calling me back to the moment
Taking me into the moment
Revealing the moment through the eye
Of Black Rabbit
To the eye of mind
Taking me back to me
Back from the moment outside the moment
Beyond the moment of dark reality

Dark the rabbit
At nights edge door
Light the moment
Locked away reality
Of time of plenty

Something else to think about
The moment is waiting
On you
To change the way
You see
Outside the moment
Inside of you
How you perceive
The path
To return to
The moment

In The Sound

1-1-12

I don't ever want to have anyone in my life that I can't forgive
I don't ever want to stop loving someone once I love them

I never want to say I lost a friend
This is my strength
This is who I am

I dipped my hand into the water
A river
From the rain
Running down the street
At one A.M.
Cold and cool the flow
Against my hand

As I stand in the slow rain
The rain I once walked in All night
Unusually warm
On December
I could feel the life

How could anyone
Share the life
Of the flow
Of the love
Shut it away
A prisoner in the mind
For life

A prison for a friend
Life was not meant for such Things to become Realities on the streets
Reality in the minds
Of friends

There is a web of light
Like the stars dripping from the trees
Take a look down at the rain
As it falls upon night
Comes upon warm or falls upon ice

Take a look at the water
You will always remember
The life

Take a look at night
You will always feel
When we put our hands
Together
Into the water
Of life

Take a walk out into the rain of night
Feel the wet hair and cheek
See light glisten on the street
Moving against the darkness
Let the water of the street rush by your hand

You will hear me talk to you
I will hear you answer too
In the Coolness
Wetness
In the
Life

In the sound

This is who I am

The Meaning Of The Question
For Miles

As I place into the water
In the gutter
Two hands
Two friends
One street
One died
One lived
We meet

Upon the blood
Spilled on the street
One loved

One taught me how to love
I lost him
She met him

He saved her life
One winter night

At the point of death
On the street

Now he talks to her
As he once talked to me
Two boys long time past
Explaining the meaning
Of the Question

That Questions the meaning of Life

Listen to the words
He speaks

This is who I am

Twilight in the Rain
Really don't know who I am
Guess it really don't matter
I am what I do in the world
I am who I choose in my mind

I've looked into the mirror of the world
The mirror on the streets in the rain
Seen its face at the time the sunset
If you take a look across its vast reflection
You can see time unfold before your very eyes
As the day divides into night
There is a light that shines upon

Across
&
Everything

It is like the first time you ever seen
The image of your own reflection
But to see the light of your life
In the light of this mirror
Will open up your eyes
Will make it clear
That your time here
As a life
Counts
As no little thing

Get a look into the mirror
In the rain
As it paints itself
Onto the street
Across the twilight
Of your mind
Of your life
It will open
Your eye

Own The Day

Still Rearranging
Change can be good
When you get yourself
Into the groove of what is going on Inside

A part of
This rearranging
Just start with what you've been given
What a day gives to you

Make the best of it
In making the best
Is found the path to Making it better
Each time

Doppio Espresso Con Panna
Hand whipped vanilla extract cream
A little chocolate sprinkling
Half ounce of Irish Whisky

Sipped through a straw as it slowly
Dipped through the cream
Mixed into the depth of bitter

Dancing across the lips
Sweet as an Irish cream
Slowly savored
Shaved with a spoon
Lavished on the tip off the tongue

A kiss
Across the lips
Sublime
Painted across the senses
Making it own Déjà Vu
Of the day

Just a little change
That's all it takes
To make the time your own
To own the day

Tiger

2012 01 19

Tiger in a cage
Inside my heart

Love put a cage
On what ought to be free

Love is free
All' free to love

Putting a tiger
In a cage
To amuse

Love will amaze you too
Being love

A tiger is amazing in a cage
But the love of a tiger in the wild

Intense
Dangerous
Satisfying the true nature
Of all desiring

To be a tiger
To mate with a tiger

Is something no woman
Has ever known
All women long
To know

Only a female tiger
Has ever known

Look into the tiger's eye

If you long

Love

No other place
Can it be found

Naked In Heaven

Mind Cocoon
2012 01 20

Naked in heaven
Made to be
Who I am

Not who I'm Made ashamed
To be

Butterfly to be
In this mind cocoon

We all have some beauty
Some quirks about us

Though not all do have eyes to see
Or to see by

Don't be holding on to
The wrong things

We hold on to
The good things
The love

We don't love to dwell on Traumatic things

Let Me be me

Not all those other things

Bestowing the memories
Of love
Into the consciousness
Of Life

Live only
In the memories
Love

You are not a man
Until you have lost
Who you are

And lost it
Because you were willing

To lose it
For love

Remembering only

The Love

Zoo Keeper The Zoo Déjà Vu

Have you heard the sound
Of the clock of life
May I reveal it to you

This thing
This Zoo Déjà Vu

Everywhere

Allow me
To take you To See its face

To hear its sound
To understand it's time

4 I should know
2 find this thing
4 I am

The Zoo Keeper

Given the keys
2 the gate
2 the Zoo

Of this life
In the mind
Of men

Zoo residents' got to eat
You got to feed them
That is the first level
The first key

Every clock keeps its own time
But the clock of life
Keeps the time
Of everything

Time in the Zoo
Don't belong to you

It is a gift
For you to Learn to understand

The cocoon
This is the door
Of the second key

The clock of life
Hangs on its door

The second hand
Is the second key

The second you understand
The seconds you spend
In this Zoo

Is the second
That opens the second door

Take a listening
I am telling you

I am
Holding the key
To the door of souls

Take a looking in
If you dare
In to the key hole
On the door

It will look back
Into your eye
Eye 2 Eye

Inside of you
The mirror
Of souls

Once you get a look into it
In to the key hole's eye

You will long to stand
Naked
In its reflection

For to see yourself
In the mirror of souls
This is the third door

It is the door without a key

You must be able to see yourself
On the other side
To go through

Two mirrors facing one another
Image revealed eternally

Mirror 2 Mirror
The door open

In the open door

You will hear the sound
Of the clock of life

Keeping its time
Music in the mind

While spending your time
In this Zoo

Can you hear the sound
Of this clock of life
Revealed inside of you

This
Zoo Déjà Vu

Everywhere

Listen for the sound
In your life

The sound of the tuning key
In your soul

Look into the mirror
In the keyhole of the door
Of life

See yourself
Standing on the other side
Free

Look into the eye
Of
The Gate Keeper

Undefined Infusion Redefined

“As If”

Punished by Love
For what I did not do
I have paid the sentence
For the denial
Of the face
Of my friend
Sentenced by denial
Of their love
Chastised for the inability
To look inside
Of the actions
Of accountability
Retrospective
Redeemed by self

Transferred To the
Of
He
That loved
Portrayed by they that do betray
